Spring Fling Week provided food, fun and entertainment for students, faculty and staff.

Students on the Wesson campus always look forward to the crawfish boil on one night of the week. As for the students on the Natchez campus, the annual goat kissing will always bring about a laugh or two. Simpson County Center students enjoy the many activities of the week. Each campus has its own theme for the event-packed week.

Spring Fling is a time to have fun and relax before finals. It is also a time for out going sophomores to reminisce about their time at Copiah-Lincoln Community College. The administration, along with members of the Student Government Association, work hard to ensure students have an enjoyable time during Spring Fling.

Robert Allen, Maintenance/Janitorial Specialist for the Simpson County Center, embodies the model of a servant, as he always puts the needs of the campus ahead of his own. A part of the SCC Staff since its opening, his focus is on his job and always doing it in a manner of excellence, regardless how large or how small the task. He strives every day to ensure that the campus looks the best it can look and that the faculty/staff have a facility that allows them to be successful in their work with the students. While Mr. Allen is officially part-time, he consistently works additional hours when the task requires it, and he always does so with a positive attitude and a smile on his face.

Thus, he was selected for the High Performance Award in 2009. Mr. Allen and his wife, Charlotte, are the parents of three children (one is deceased) and they have three grandchildren. Homecoming 2009

By: Laney McQuage

Homecoming is a very exciting and eventful time of year for both current students and alumni. A new Queen is crowned and many awards are given. Lasting memories are made, and a great time is had by all. Mary Catherine McDonnieal was crowned this year's Homecoming Queen, and twelve beautiful girls were elected maids. The Alumni Association honored four outstanding athletes with their induction into the Sports Hall of Fame. Alumni of the Year, Band and Colette Alumni, and five Outstanding Instructors and Staff were honored this year.

Homecoming week brings many exciting events to campus such as the annual golf tournament, class reunions, honoring former alumni groups, luncheon, tailgate party, and the event most looked forward to...the annual homecoming football game.

Homecoming was such a wonderful week that was filled with numerous activities that all lead up to an exciting game. The students, faculty, and staff did a superb job in participating in the festivities. The students really enjoyed the dance and the decorations made by the student government. The parade was the highlight of the week along with the pep rally. At the rally the band, the Colettes, and the cheerleaders all preformed to show support for the Wolfpack Football Team. This year the Wolves played against Pearl River and won 42- 25.

Veteran's Day

November 11, 2009

By: Mark LaFrancis

During the months of November and December, the Natchez Campus sponsored several programs and events to salute veterans and soldiers.

On Nov. 7, the American Flag Retirement Ceremony was held in conjunction with local veterans and Scouting organizations. More than 100 worn flags were burned in ceremonial fashion as prescribed by the U.S. Flag Code.

"It was a wonderful ceremony," said Ricky Warren, Scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 168, one of the organizations participating. "The America Flag was highly respected that day, and treated in the proper way. Co-Lin deserves credit for sponsoring the program; and it was good to see so many young people attending and participating."

On Nov. 11, Co-Lin hosted the Community Veterans Day Program in the W. L. Nelson Multi-Purpose Room. More than 180 attended from around the community and the campus.

Busby was director of the program; representatives of the Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps at Natchez High School made up the Color Guard; the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Sgt. 1st Class Dandridge L. Brooks Sr. of the Mississippi Army National Guard.

Speakers included Natchez Mayor Jake Middleton and Army Capt. Meckard Deon Carter of the Mississippi Army National Guard. Co-Lin instructor Linda Davis, led students in singing "God Bless America." They were Sharla Cameron, Amber Smith, Raven Wright, Marlisha Brinkley, Takita Scott, Regina Murphy (a veteran), Tahyna Nations and Marquita Young.

On Dec. 7, Co-Lin mailed 19 boxes containing more than 3,000 items and more than 1,000 Christmas cards to soldiers from this area stationed in Iraq.

On Dec. 30, Co-Lin delivered eight boxes of items and more than 400 holiday cards to the G. V. "Sonny" Montgomery Veterans Medical Center in Jackson.

Taste of Co-Lin

By: Mark LaFrancis

Take goblins and ghouls, spiders and skeletons, mix in meatballs and gumbo, cookies and pie, stir in music and laughter and you have the perfect recipe for success. Oh, yes, there's that competition, too, for the titles of best food and best display.

That's what happened during the annual Taste of Co-Lin recently at Copiah-Lincoln Community College's Natchez campus.

The event is a fun fund-raiser pitting clubs and organizations in competition to create the best food items and decorate their food booths. This year's theme was Monster Bash, so Halloween costumes, food and decorations were in abundance.

"It was great to see everyone having such a wonderful time! Definitely, the best Taste of Co-Lin yet!" said Nancy McFarland, academic counselor and advisor to Trailblazers, the lead sponsoring club.

Vice President Teresa Busby said, "It is great to see clubs on campus support each other and the number of clubs who participated this year was impressive. The food, as always, was exceptional. Our Trailblazers did a nice job putting this event together."

Trailblazers won The Spectacular Silver Spatula Award, while the combined N-Sights/Film Club entry won the Taste of Co-Lin Trophy. More than 100 people stopped by to sample the food, view the booths and vote. The revenue will be used for promotional purposes for the campus.

"It is a truly amazing event that draws the campus clubs and organizations together for a few hours of good natured competition," said Vonnie White, a Trailblazers advisor and Career and Technical Education counselor. "Each year the event grows larger and the participants raise the bar higher to include better food and more elaborate table decorations. I look forward to Taste every year. It has become the 'can't miss' event on campus!"

Blue Wave Show Band

Plundered by the "Pirates of the Colin-bbean"

The voyage begins with the "Pirates of the Colin-bbean" in the swashbuckling voyage across the open seas in search of all the ill-gotten booty they can muster.

Soon, they will be somewhat subdued by Larry and his pals of Veggie-Tale fame as the "Pirates That Don't Do Anything." As they move across the sea, the drumline will then be featured in a rousing rendition of "What Do We With a Drunken Sailor."

Finally, when order is restored, no visit to the Caribbean could be complete without a touch of Jimmy Buffet.

As the pirates come back to reality, they begin to ponder their checkered pasts with "A Pirates Looks at 40."

But...beeeeware maties..... no one knows what lurks in Davie Jones' Locker???

Seeing the brighter side of life

By: Rachel Hayman

Mytchiko Mckenzie is a freshman student who is pursuing an Orientation and Mobility degree. One thing you should know about this energetic and self-motivated student is she is legally blind.

She was born four and a half months prematurely and only weighed one pound and fourteen ounces, which resulted in her retinas not fully developing. This condition is called Reteniteus Pigmentesa of Prematurity.

"I'm one of the few people who is not afraid to walk in the dark because I don't need a light. I have my cane."
- Mytchiko McKenzie

The South Pike graduate chose Co-Lin to test her skills to see if she was independent enough to be away from her parents. She has daily challenges like finding things and recognizing people. She believes that Co-Lin and any other situation is all of what one makes of it. She had the chance to participate in the 2009 Trillium Beauty Pageant and walked gracefully and confidently across the stage as contestant number eight.

She is a member of the Co-Lin Blue Wave Show Band, the Wesley Drama Team, and the Mississippi United Methodist Student College Union Movement. Her greatest accomplishments include getting the highest ACT score of her graduating class and making it through this year's football season in the band. She is a very talented young lady who plays tenor saxophone, alto saxophone, clarinet, and bass clarinet.

Underneath it ALL

By: Matthew Gaddy

Co-Lin is truly the place to be. I decided on Co-Lin because of the atmosphere, the smaller classes, and the spirit of the school.

School spirit is the foremost value for me because I was the mascot in a spirit-rich program in high school. Co-Lin gave me the opportunity to further my mascot duties into college because they have an incredibly spirited program.

I absolutely love being the mascot here at Co-Lin. It gives me a chance to interact with the fans, children, patrons, and the community. We have so many activities on and off campus that the cheerleaders and I attend.

Co-Lin is also a place for me to further my education and make an easier transition into a four-year college. There's no place like home, and there's no place like Co-Lin!

Every incoming freshman always has a big decision to make once they are accepted into Co-Lin: to stay in the dorms or not to stay. Many decide based on how far away they live from the campus, expenses, friendships, extracirricular activities, work, and many other reasons.

Some may just want to experience that sudden feeling of independence away from their parents. Or others think they actually get more accomplished while staying on campus.

The four different girls dorm on the Co-Lin Wesson Campus are: Copiah Hall, Lula Stevens Hall, Stevens Annex and Josie G. Ellis Hall (honors dorms). As for the boys, Co-Lin Wesson Campus also offers fours dorms like Elzie Hall, Franklin Hall, and Lincoln and Lawrence (honor dorms).

There are always activities going on for dorm residents like intramural sports, Spring Fling, various dances, and many other things to participate in throughout the year.

Living in the dorms is one of the best experiences at Co-Lin. Students often gain new friendships and a taste of independence. Co-Lin is definitely the place to be.

on a Mission

By: Amanda Burke

Sophomores Kellie Brady and Daniel Friis had a once in a lifetime opportunity during Christmas Break. The two spent their Christmas Holidays on a mission trip in China. Through the Baptist Student Union, Kellie and Daniel traveled with 175 students from Mississippi and a few students from Boston, Massachusetts. The Mississippi Baptist Convention Board was in charge of organizing the trip but each student was required to raise funds needed for the trip. Not wanting to look suspicious with 175 students going throughout the communist China trying to witness to people, the large group split into small groups and were sent to different cities of the country.

Kellie and Daniel say they were blessed to have six other wonderful students in their group. The two really enjoyed the "one big happy family" feel they had had within their group. The memories they made will stay with them for the rest of their lives.

> "If anyone ever asked me if I would ever go back, I would tell them "I am already half way there."
> - Daniel Friis

"It is really hard to say what my favorite part of China was, because I loved it all," exclaims Kellie.

Kellie and Daniel had the opportunity to worship with fellow believers in their house churches, or better known as, underground churches. Even though they could not understand a word they were saying, the pair thought it was such a beautiful sight to see the Chinese people giving their all to the Savior. The Chinese Christians involved with house churches put their lives on the line to worship God and that is a beautiful sight in itself.

They also had the chance to visit with college students in an English corner of a bookstore. There they tried to communicate with Chinese students. The students practiced their English while the missionaries tried their hands at speaking Chinese.

Daniel says that the students loved to watch or play basketball. "If they were not playing some kind of sport, they were doing some type of school work. Six days out of the week they were in school and the seventh day was homework day," he explained.

The two both enjoyed their experience and hope to return to China one day. They pray that those who may not know Christ, as they or the Chinese do, will come to know Jesus.

The Wolfpack had a successful 2009 campaign finishing with a 6-3 record, 4-2 in the South Division and one win away from the playoffs.

Co-Lin got off to a slow start falling to eventual State Champion East Mississippi 27-13. They bounced back in Week 2 defeating Mississippi Delta 34-9. Quarterback Percy Turner was named an Offensive Top Performer of the Week. Turner was 14-of-24 for 144 yards and three touchdowns. Return specialist Fred Fuller was selected the Special Team Top Performer of the week for his 80-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

In Week 3, the Wolfpack traveled to Jones County and lost a heartbreaker 28-24. They returned home in Week 4 to defeat rival Southwest 15-3. Linebacker Ronney Magee was selected as a Top Defensive Performer of the Week for his 4 tackles and 45-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

The Wolfpack hit the road traveling north to the Delta to spoil Coahoma's homecoming 16-15. Then came the match-up with nationally-ranked Mississippi Gulf Coast. The game was webcast live nationally on the NJCAA website. Co-Lin jumped out to an early lead, but Gulf Coast came back to take a 38-14 win.

In Week 7, Co-Lin celebrated homecoming with a 45-25 win over the Pearl River Wildcats. Running back Tywon Lee rushed 29 times for 161 yards and 2 touchdowns earning him Top Offensive Performer honors.

Despite heavy rain, the Wolfpack defeated East Central 27-13 sparked by a 86-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Fred Fuller. This earned Fuller the Top Special Team Performer of the Week honors.

In the final game of the season, the Wolfpack earned a hard-fought 14-7 win over the Hinds Eagles. Defensive lineman Terrence Coleman and defensive back Lionel Stokes were selected Top Defensive Performers of the Week. Coleman accounted for 7 tackles, 3 sacks and 1 forced fumble. Stokes had 15 tackles.

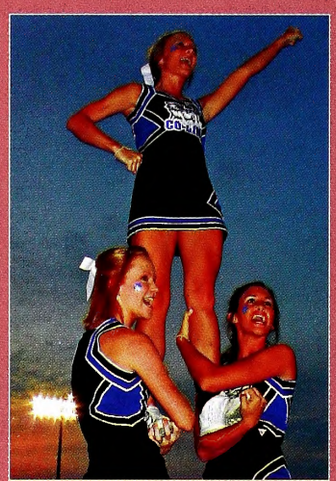
Stand up and CHEER

By: Natalie Davis

The Wolfpack cheerleaders provide support and inspiration for Co-Lin athletic teams, fans and supporters. Many hours of practice and conditioning year around go into the preparation for the season.

Tryouts are held each April. Former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders in February so they can be prepared for tryouts.

Starting in May, the new squad travels to surrounding counties conducting private camps to junior high cheerleaders. Each camp lasts three to five days. The cheerleaders also hold Lil Wolf Cheer Camps for elementary-age students during the year. Participants cheer during home football and basketball games.



Co-Lin cheerleaders practice at least three to four times a week beginning in May. They have attended UCA cheer camp at the University of Alabama the last eight years winning numerous awards and trophies.

Former Co-Lin cheerleaders have gone on to cheer at NCAA Division I schools including the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State, the University of Southern Mississippi, Southeastern Louisiana University, and Delta State University.

What can be said about the Lady Wolves Soccer team? They worked very hard this season. Members of the team were dedicated to training and conditioning in the off season in order to prepare for their tough schedule this year. These ladies were in each and every game, putting forth a valliant effort each time they stepped onto the field. As Thomas Jefferson once stated, "There is no substitute for hard work." The Lady Wolves certainly worked hard this season.

The 2009-2010 Wolves were looking to make a return trip to the MACJC Championship game. But the Wolves only returned two sophomores off last year's team, forwards Dwayne Brown and Josh Hart.

Although the freshmen class was full of talent, the young and inexperienced team struggled with the rigorous and sometimes brutal South Division schedule. The Wolfpack finished the season with a 6-17 overall record and were 4-8 in the division.

Highlighting the season was a sweep of nationally-ranked Hinds, a 66-65 win at home and a 79-77 win in Utica. The Wolves lost six games by six points or less, which could have turned the season around.

The Wolfpack gained valued experience this season as they prepare for the 2010-2011 campaign.

On a mission

Lady Wolves finish regular season 23-0

By: Natalie Davis

After finishing runners-up in last year's MACJC State and NJCAA Region 23 Tournaments, the Lady Wolves came into the 2009-2010 season on a mission, winning the state and regional championship. They are one step closer to their goal as they finished the 2009-2010 regular season with a perfect 23-0 record, 12-0 in the division and a South Division Championship. It was the college's third perfect regular season in school history, all three under head coach Gwyn Young.

The Lady return two starters from last year's season including NJCAA Honorable Mention All-American Rachel Vigers and NJCAA All-Region 23 and First Team MACJC All-Stater Latoria Holder. Other experienced returnees include forward Shareka Hunt and guards Rokeiya Adams and Nadia Collins.

This year's freshmen class includes Kristin Newsome, Naketa Roberts, Paige Webster, Brandi Simmons, Ashley Morrison, Alicia Kelly, and KeeDarrylon Gallagher.

The Wolfpack look to improve in 2010 after finishing last season with an overall record of 19-26 and a South Division record of 10-14.

This year's team will be as young as any team in the last 17 years. The key to the success in 2010 will be how the young players adjust. The entire pitching staff will be made up of players that have little or no experience at the college level.

Returning sophomores include catchers Tyler Hue and Ryne Tutor, Second Team All-State centerfielder/LHP Jeff DeBlieux, outfielder Kendall Logan, infielders Cable McMinn, Luke Brumfield and Matthew Freeman. Pitcher Brandon Jones will miss the 2010 season due to injury.

A large group of incoming freshmen include catcher Zach Williams, catcher/RHP Daniel Jenkins, first baseman/RHP Conner Oakes, shortstop Edmund Cheatham, shortstop/second baseman Brett Rushing shortstop/third baseman Bud Britt, and third baseman/RHP Preston Edwards.

Coach Keith Case returns for his 18th season for the Wolfpack. Bryan Nobile returns for his sixth season as assistant coach. Justin Brewer joins the coaching staff this season as an assistant. Serving as a student assistants are Brandon Jones and Steven Capistran.

The Diamond Dolls are an integral part of the Co-Lin Baseball Program. These hard working young ladies work in various areas of the program. They are the friendly faces that will greet you at the gate at all Wolfpack home games at Sullivan Field. Home games will also find the Diamond Dolls working in the concession stand on the third base side of the stadium. Away from the field the Diamond Dolls serve as hostesses to recruits on campus. They give campus tours and entertain them in the dining facilities. The Diamond Dolls spend quality time in making the Co-Lin Baseball Program successful.

Steppin' up

The 2010 season brings another year of high expectations for the Lady Wolves. The 2009 squad won the difficult South Division title and their third MACJC State Tournament Championship in the last four years. Five starters were lost from the 2009 team that finished the season ranked No. 9 in the NJCAA National Polls. This marked seven straight years that the Lady Wolves were ranked in the NJCAA's Top 10.

Returning sophomores who made key contributions are NJCAA Second Team All-American center fielder Monea Cameron, NJCAA All-Region shortstop Daniele Wilson, MACJC Second Team All-State pitcher/second baseman Terri Hodges and MACJC Second Team All-State third baseman. Holli Smith.

Cameron set school records for homeruns (10) and runs scored (41). In addition, she led the team in batting average .412 and slugging percentage of .748. Wilson lead the team in RBIs with 49, while setting school records for doubles (16) and walks (29). Wilson carried a hefty .403 batting average, hitting 8 homeruns.

Sophomores who look to make contributions this year are catcher/first baseman Katie Stewart and utility player Dee-Dee Walker. These sophomores were instrumental in our success last season and look to continue to build on that success in 2010.

Kent is bringing in a talented group of freshmen. Three freshmen out-of-state players highlight the group, pitchers Bethany Pinkston and Debra Hamor, and catcher Lakin Lockhart. All three have extensive travel ball experience and come from very successful high school programs.

Local area freshmen competing for playing time include catcher/utility Haley Sones, utility players Erika Rutland and Casey Risher. Rounding out the in-state crop is outfielder Kayla Coleman.

The sophomores return with a sense of confidence having won last year's MACJC State Tournament, but they are hungry for a return trip to the National Tournament. The Lady Wolves must succeed in division play, in the State Tournament and finish in the top two in the NJCAA Regional/District Tournament.

The Lady Wolves will be young and inexperienced in 2010. The team will be led by Mary Catherine McDonnieal, the lone returning sophomore.

Coach Holli Pepper will be relying on newcomers Katie Beth Case, Nicole Magee, Meagan Neal, Heather Huff, and Rosa Young.

"We've have several players that have been succesful in doubles at the high school ranks," said Pepper. They have limited experience in singles, but have worked hard in the fall in preparation for the spring.

The upcoming 2010 season looks very promising with the return of the top four sophomores. Anchoring the Wolfpack are Columbians Nico Osorio and Guillermo Chaves, the Wolfpack's No. 1 and No. 2 players, along with Reed Rodgers (No. 3) and Reilly Miller (No. 4).

"I want to win an individual state title and help my team repeat as State Champs, and then qualify for the NJCAA National Tournament next spring," said Osorio.

"I would like to add a singles title and repeat as a doubles State Champ, in addition to helping my team make that trip to Nationals," said Chaves.

According to McIntyre, Rogers and Miller made tremendous progress as players last spring. Both were doubles players in high school, but their singles games came up several levels. Unlike high school tennis, collegiate players need both singles and doubles skills.

Joining the 2010 team are sophomores Colby Bass John McLeod, freshmen Joey Shelton and Levi Weeks.

McIntyre is very optomistic about 2010. "With the top four players returning, if the new players work hard, we should be able to make another run at a State Championship.

There are many things happeing around the campuses of Copiah-Lincoln Community College. This year, the college experienced a record-breaking enrollment of 3,700 students, which now makes Co-Lin larger than Alcorn State University and Mississippi Valley State University. There was also record-breaking snow falls throughout the state.

Improvements and additions were apparent when students arrived on the campuses for the new school year. There is always something going on at Co-Lin, which is what makes it "Like No Other."

College breaks ground on new health science building

By: Mark LaFrancis

Co-Lin Natchez broke ground for a $4.2 million 25,500-square-foot health science classroom building Oct. 1. outside the Tom Reed Academic Center.

"We're really excited about this new facility on the Co-Lin Natchez campus," said President Ronnie Nettles, praising the Adams County Board of Supervisors.

The financing was secured in 2007, when the Adams County Board of Supervisors voted to continue an annual allocation to Co-Lin Natchez. Moments prior to the ceremony, the Co-Lin Board of Trustees approved hiring Clark Construction Co. of Brookhaven. Additional financing will come from a $740,000 federal no-interest loan to Co-Lin through the U.S. Department of Agriculture to purchase equipment and educational materials. That loan was arranged through the Southwest Mississippi Electric Power Association, which provides electricity to Co-Lin Natchez.

"For 37 years, the Copiah Lincoln Community College Natchez campus has provided quality educational opportunities and other services to Adams County and the surrounding area," said Eugene Bates, chairman of the Co-Lin Board of Trustees.

Construction began in late October with site preparation. The building could be ready by early 2011.

Floyd "Honey" McCalip Pavilion dedicated

Below a blanket of blue sunny skies, family and friends gathered in the courtyard to dedicate the Floyd L. "Honey" McCalip Pavilion to the late Floyd McCalip of Natchez. In addition, the gathering celebrated the pavilion's completion by James "Bubba" McKinley of Natchez, who undertook the project to earn his Eagle Scout badge.

"When they told me they were going to dedicate the pavilion to my father-in-law I was very impressed and thrilled ... the whole family was," said Gwen McCalip. "It was very touching to us and we appreciate this it was hard work. This means so much to the McCalip family."

McCalip also is director of admissions and records at Co-Lin Natchez.

Floyd McCalip was a long-time Boy Scout executive and a frequent visitor to Co-Lin Natchez, where he frequently was an active participant in the Current Issues Discussion Group sessions conducted by History instructor James Wiggins, who attended the ceremony.

Campuses receive improvements

By: Natalie Davis

Landscaping projects on all three campuses were completed in 2009. In addition to the landscaping, new banners have been added on all campuses. The banners were designed by staff member Celeste Williamson. The Wesson Campus received a new iron gate in front of the Ewing Administration Building and the Oswalt Library.

Two new portable classrooms were purchased for the Simpson County Center. One will house a computer lab and the other will be used as a science laboratory.

Natchez Campus named Business of the Year

Accepting the Natchez Adams Chamber of Commerce Award for Outstanding Large Business of the Year were Teresa Busby, vice president, and Dr. Ronnie Nettles, Co-Lin president. By: Mark LaFrancis

The Natchez Campus was chosen by the Natchez Adams County Chamber of Commerce as the Large Business of the Year. It was the first time the campus has been so honored.

"Not only has Co-Lin Natchez made a difference in the lives of individuals throughout our community it is a vital part of the employment and economic base of our region," said Debbie Hudson, chamber president and chief executive officer. "The members of our community touched by Co-Lin Natchez are not only better educated but are more able to find successful careers. They care for their community, and that matters to all of us."

Dr. Ronnie Nettles, Co-Lin president, and Teresa Busby, campus vice president, accepted the award, which is kept secret until the announcement.

In an e-mail to staff, Nettles said, "Congratulations to Vice President Teresa Busby, instructors, and staff at the Natchez Campus for being recognized as the Large Business of the Year by the Natchez-Adams Chamber of Commerce at their annual awards banquet last night. This award demonstrates that the business community of Natchez appreciates the contributions and positive impact of Co-Lin Natchez in the community."

Nettles added, "I appreciate the hard work of everyone at the Natchez Campus for their dedication and commitment to our students and the Natchez community. It was a good evening for our college. I heard many positive comments about Co-Lin."

Busby said, "It is such an honor for us to receive the Chamber of Commerce Large Business award for 2009. We at Co-Lin have always worked to contribute to our community and to have a positive impact on the many lives we touch."

Busby continued. "It is also special to realize that others recognize our contribution to the community, not just as an educational institution, but an employer and school whose employees and students take their roles as community partners very seriously. The dozens of staff and students who helped make this award possible share in our honor."

Third annual Copiah-Lincoln Lecture Series

Mississippi Lt. Governor Phil Bryant

By: Natalie Davis

Mississippi Lieutenant Governor Phil Bryant was the fall speaker for the 2009-2010 Co-Lin Lecture Series. Bryant spoke on "State and Local Governments" on September 14, 2009, in Rea Auditorium on the Wesson Campus.

The former State Auditor was elected Mississippi's Lt. Governor in November 2007. Lt. Governor Bryant has a long history of fighting for conservative beliefs, like lower taxes. Prior to serving as State Auditor, Bryant served five years as a member of the Mississippi House of Representatives where he was Vice Chairman of the Insurance Committee and authored the Capital Gains Tax Cut Act of 1994.

Lt. Governor Bryant's persistence in promoting conservative public policy stems from his belief that people, not the government, know best how to spend their own money. His consistent views and actions in public service helped him earn the 2004 Statesman of the Year award presented by the American Family Radio.

Tom Noddy, The Bubble Man

By: Natalie Davis

The spring speaker was Tom Noddy, the Bubbleman. Noddy performed three shows (two shows for over 600 elementary students) on March 1-2, at The Thames Center on the Wesson Campus.

Noddy spent over a decade developing a new kind of performance piece. Sitting alone with dime store bubble solution, a childlike sense of wonder and an adult sense of humor he brought a new thing into being: Bubble Magic.

After three appearances on America's Tonight Show, Noddy was featured on the 'Best of the Year' Tonight Show segment. In his 30-plus year career as America's Bubble Guy, he has appeared numerous times on prime time, daytime and late night television shows as well as nightclubs and universities.

Noddy's work has been presented to 900 mathematicians at the International Congress of Mathematics in Berlin, Germany. He's been the featured performer for science centers' Bubble Festivals attracting up to 17,000 people in a single weekend.

He is as comfortable performing for pre-schoolers as he is when entertaining audiences in theaters, nightclub, corporate parties, trade shows, or television programs in over 50 countries.

Noddy has taken his uniquely warm charm and intellectual interest in soap bubbles to audiences around the world. The bubbles are truly exquisite and his lively humor and engaging sense of fun leave his audiences both delighted and intrigued.

Let it Snow...

Let it SNOW

By: Natalie Davis

Snow in Mississippi is an unusual occurrence, but two significant snow falls in one winter is really out of the ordinary.

A rare historic winter storm impacted the state late in the evening February 12 and the morning of February 13 with Central and Southern Mississippi receiving the brunt of the heavy snow. This winter storm would dump 3-6 inches of snowfall through Central and South Mississippi.

Two to four inches blanketed the campuses on Friday, December 4. Students, faculty and staff got a day out of school to enjoy the beautiful scenery.

Christmas at Co-Lin

By: Mark LaFrancis

Squeals of children filled the lobby of the Tom Reed Academic Center on the Natchez Campus.

Santa Claus had arrived and was ready to hear children's wishes for Christmas. Mrs. Claus joined him at his side as youngsters - some eagerly and others a little warily - disclosed their wish lists.

Laptops, games, bicycles, and other fun items topped many lists. In all about 50 children visited with Santa during the first Christmas at Co-Lin program, an event spearheaded by Vice President Teresa Busby and staff as a gift to the community this holiday season. Parents were given free photos of their children with Santa and even Mrs. Claus. Children received balloons and candy canes. Cookies, hot chocolate and cider were provided.

The lobby of the Tom Reed Academic Center was transformed into a Christmas wonder land for the event by instructor Nancy Best with help from staff and students.

Science Division hosts DNA Workshop and Robotics Camp

Co-Lin's Science Division has spent a busy year reaching out to the community. The division offered a Robotics and Space Exploration Camp for students entering the fifth, sixth or seventh grades June 15-19, 2009.

"We noticed a lack of science camps for this age group and felt this would be a good fit for the community," said Dr. Kevin McKone, Co-Lin Science Division Chair. "We are very excited about hosting this camp."

Students learned the basics of robotic design and programming, build and design a space robot, learn about summer constellations and use a robotic telescope.

The first three days campers met at Smith Hall on Co-Lin's Wesson Campus. The last two days they traveled and spent the night at French Camp, MS, and viewed the night sky at French Camp Academy's Rainwater Observatory and Planetarium. The Rainwater Observatory and Planetarium is an educational ministry of French Camp Academy. The Observatory, the largest in the state, has 16 telescopes, a planetarium and an extensive astronomy library plus other optical instruments.

The division hosted a DNA Fingerprinting and Paternity Testing Workshop for area high school instructors on January 20, 2010, on the Wesson Campus.

Kathy McKone from Enterprise High School filled in for scheduled guest speaker Dr. Mike Yerky of Cornell University. McKone has attended Yerky's workshop at Co-Lin and at Cornell.

Workshop participants performed DNA fingerprinting and paternity tests which are widely used in criminal or legal cases to determine identity or parentage.

Participants have access to a loaner kit that includes all the equipment necessary to complete these experiments with their students in the classroom.

Co-Lin named Military Friendly School

By: Natalie Davis

Copiah-Lincoln Community College has been named a Military Friendly School as announced by G.I. Jobs. Co-Lin was one of four Mississippi colleges and universities to receive the distinction and the only community college selected.

The list honors the top 15 percent of colleges, universities and trade schools, which are doing the most to embrace America's veterans as students.

"We are very proud of this distinction," said Co-Lin President Dr. Ronnie Nettles. "I commend the efforts of Tim Lea, our certifying official for veteran's affairs and our Office of Admissions for their efforts with our veteran students."

Schools on the list range from state and universities and private colleges to community colleges and trade schools. The common bond is their shared priority of recruiting students with military experience.

The tens of billions of dollars in tuition money, now available with the recent passage of the Post-9/11 GI Bill, has intensified an already strong desire by colleges to court veterans into their classrooms.

Schools on the Military Friendly Schools list also offer additional benefits to student veterans such as on-campus veterans programs, credit services, military spouse program and more.

The list was compiled through exhaustive research starting last May during the G.I. Jobs polled more than 7,000 schools nationwide. Methodology, criteria and weighting for the list were developed with the assistance of an Academic Advisory Committee (AAC) consisting of educators and administrators from Carnegie Mellon University, the University of Toledo, Duquesne University, Coastline Community College and Lincoln Technical Institute.

Criteria for making the Military Friendly Schools list included efforts to recruit and retain military and veteran students, results in recruiting military and veteran students and academic accreditations.

From The Trillium Staff

Co-Lin was the perfect start to my college career. I have had many opportunities and memorable experiences while attending Co-Lin. I was fortunate enough to work on the Trillium Staff for the past two years. This year's staff has dedicated much of their time and effort into creating this book for students and faculty alike to enjoy. Working with each and every person on staff to make this book a success has been a wonderful experience. Even in the midst of deadlines crunches, our staff maintained composure and got the job done. Good job guys! We did it! Mrs. Natalie Davis has made a large contribution to this book. Without her, things certainly would not have gone over so smoothly. Thanks Mrs. Natalie! I hope everyone is able to have the experiences I have had while attending Co-Lin. It is "Like No Other."

-Amanda Burke, Co-Editor

I am so honored to have been apart of this team. They have all worked so hard and dedicated so much time to this edition of the trillium. I would like to say thanks to everyone who played a part in bringing this book together. The trillium is not just a book filled with photos, rather a book filled with memories. I would like to say a special thanks to my co-editor, Amanda Burke. Thanks for all your hard work and your time. It would not have been possible without you. I also would like to say a HUGE thanks to our sponsor, Mrs. Natalie Davis. I truly believe this is the best edition the school has ever seen.

- Gregory May, Co-Editor

I hope you enjoy the first full-color Trillium. I am honored to have been part of this historic occasion in Co-Lin's history. I am so proud of my staff! Thanks so much for having patience with me, I know that it was very tedious at times, but we made it!

- Natalie Davis, Advisor

The last two years Co-Lin has become my second home and family. Time spent here has been an enjoyable experience. I have made new life long friends. Co-Lin offers a vast of opportunities from attending sporting events, plays, productions, and Spring Fling week. I have had the honor to serve on several clubs and organizations while attending school here. The memories of Co Lin will last a life time. Thank you to the faculty and staff for the foundation that has been laid. Co-Lin in my opinion has the best faculty. To future students I will say make the most of the opportunities and experiences during the time you have here at Copiah-Lincoln Community College, get involved and do not miss out on anything or any opportunities.

- Bradley Boykin, Photographer

I am so honored to be on the Trillium Yearbook Staff, and I want to thank the other staff members for their hard work and for the guidance they have put forth. Thank you Mrs. Natalie Davis for this wonderful opportunity you have given me as well. I have seen so much work go into this edition, and I hope everyone enjoys.

- Rachel Hayman, Staff Member

It has been an honor to be able to contribute to this year's edition of The Trillium. To be part of such a dedicated staff is something I'll forever be proud of.

From the Editors

"Like No Other" has been the theme of the 2009-2010 Trillium. This theme has also been evident throughout the year. From all the events and activities going on around the campuses of Co-Lin, it certainly has been a year "Like No Other."

The Trillium staff wanted to make this yearbook different from past annuals. We worked very hard to ensure this book was something worth reading.

So many things have happened this year and the Trillium staff wanted to capture every moment.

We are very appreciative of you picking up a copy of the 2009-2010 Co-Lin Trillium. The staff hopes that years from now, you will be able to pick it up, look through it, and remember all the memories made at Copiah-Lincoln Community College this year.

Some thanks are in order for making this edition of the Trillium possible. First of all, the staff wants to thank Dr. Ronnie Nettles for all of his support. The staff also owes a huge thank you to Mrs. Natalie Davis, our advisor. She really worked hard to make sure we were doing our job so the Trillium would be "Like No Other."

Thanks again and we hope you have enjoyed the year and reading the Trillium!

Sincerely,
Amanda Burke and Gregory May
2009-2010 Trillium Editors

From the 1937 Trillium:

Eight years have passed by since the students of Copiah-Lincoln published their last volume of The Co-Lin. Since then much water has gone under the bridge. Many changes have been wrought in our college. We have ridden triumphantly out the the depression, preserved our traditions, and achieved some of our ambitions. We have grown steadily stronger in the things that make a college great. Academic achievements, dreamed of in 1929 have become ours; athletic honors, cleanly won on fair fields of competition have brought us fame; character education has continued to be a noble influence in our classrooms.

Now, to celebrate the glories of our greater college and to better preserve its hallowed traditions, we are publishing, after a lapse of eight years another annual, which we christen The Co-Lin Trillium in honor of our beloved Alma Mater and a wild spring flower, native to the fields and woods of Copiah and Lincoln Counties.

Trillium: a plant with a solitary three-petaled flower above a whorl of three leaves, native to North America and Asia. Genus Trillium, family Liliaceae (or Trilliaceae): several species, in particular red (or purple) trillium (T. erectum).

ORIGIN modern Latin, apparently an alteration of Swedish trilling 'triplet."
